Our Religious Freedom: Barnabas Fund launched a campaign, 'Our Religious Freedom' in order to call on the government to make a new law which would guarantee 7 fundamental aspects of freedom of religion, consistent with the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights. They have done this because freedom of religion in the UK has been more and more under attack in the last five years. Over 33000 people have already signed the petition, and I hope we can add to that number. Please read it and sign if you are in agreement. For more information please look at the Barnabas magazine and or go on the website.
